Elkataka School Entertainment.

The school at Elkataka closed last Friday with a grand entertainment and Christmas tree, which was a delight to those who attended. The tree was served at the Kessler Chapel, north of the depot, and was considered a success in every particular. South Strong's school and Rev. Morton's Sunday school attended in joint session, and were never more highly entertained than when they received the many prizes, luxuries and gifts, which showed the wise superintending of the two teachers.

The entertainment was given at the school house and was attended by the largest audience that ever assembled at a similar entertainment at Elkataka. It was opened by prayer by Rev. Morton, followed by the school singing the beautiful song, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." The exercises lasted for three hours, and good order prevailed. The fruits of these entertainments have proven to be to our little children "as bread cast upon the waters," and we highly recommend them to the teachers of our beloved county.

NOTICE.

To Whom It May Concern:

Through the kindness of THE BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS we introduce ourselves to its readers in the vicinity of Lost Creek, because we wish to open up a school at that place.

G. E. Drushal, Ph. B., who is a graduate of Ashland College, Ashland, O., '05, in the Philosophical course, a course equivalent to any classical course in any standard college, will teach.

Mrs. Ada Drushal, who was within one year of graduation in the same college, will assist in teaching.

Second condition. All that we demand for our services this year are:

1. That fuel be provided for heating the room.
2. That the school house be repaired so that it can be comfortably heated and other necessary improvements be made about the building.
3. That some one build fires and keep the room swept.

This is to be a special school and only those who are now in or above the fourth reader grade, or at least twelve years old, will be admitted. All ordinary branches will be taught and if enough for a class for advanced work, we will be glad to teach it.

School will be held four days every week, Tuesday, Wednesday Thursday and Friday, beginning Tuesday, January 16, 1906.

The January Delinctor.

The Delinctor begins the New Year with an attractive cover and a display of all that is new in the fashion world, to say nothing of the many features of literary excellence. Of particular interest is an article by Postmaster-General Cortelyou, describing woman's place and share of work in the postal service. The article in the "Safe Food" series is devoted to a discussion of the real value of glucose as a food product. Cecilia Loftus gives her impression of "Ophelia" a character which she has acted with success, and N.
Hudson Moore writes of "Old-Fashioned Beds." "The President of Quex," Helen M. Winslow's club story, is continued, a serious note being introduced in the discussion of child labor. "At Spinster Farm" is concluded, as well as John Luther Long's clever story of the stage, "Castles in Spain." The education of the child is the subject of a thoughtful paper by Dr. Grace P. Murray, and the pastimes for little folks include the first of a series of fairy tales by Alice Brown. The various departments are filled with matter of interest and value to the woman of the home.

CORRESPONDENCE. ROUSSEAU.

Joseph Walters is moving his mill this week.

Dial Williams and Jacob Calhoun are visiting friends in Knott county.

Wiley Gillum and wife, of Jackson, were here last week looking for a farm they wish to buy.

Alson Spencer, while off-bearing lumber from a saw, got the end of his middle finger cut off.

Land buyers will be here in a few days to receive deeds and pay up. No one is afraid to buy or sell now, for the Lord said something about a new heaven and a new earth, wherein dwelt righteousness, and the people of Rousseau believe that Breathitt county for the next four years will be compared to that event.

ATHOL.

Miss Florence Strong visited her home last week.

Bedford Bowman went to Beat-tysville Monday, on business.

Miss Calla Bowman closed a very successful school last Wednesday.

Edward Cardwell, of Jackson, has been visiting the family of Mat Bowman for the past few days.

Mrs. Rachel Crawford has been very sick for a few days, but we are glad to say that she is some better.

The I. O. O. F. will have a public installation of the newly elected officers the second Saturday in January. All are invited.

Miss Gertrude Crawford, who has been attending Caldwell College, at Danville, returned home last week to spend the holidays with her parents.

Miss Lelia Bowman will leave next week to enter Campbell-Hagerman College, at Lexington.
Her brother, Joseph, will go to Hazel Green to attend Hazel Green Academy.

Christmas and New Year passed off very quietly at this place, with the exception of some shooting at the Christmas tree, on Ivy Patch.
There were a few entertainments and social gatherings, which were enjoyed very much. It is a good thing to observe Christmas day, but there is a better thing than observing Christmas day, and that is keeping Christmas. If we keep Christmas as we should, we must forget what we have done for others and remember what other people have done for us. We must stoop down and consider the needs and desires of the little children, to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old, to trim our lamps so they will give more light and less smoke, to make a grave for our ugly thoughts and a garden for our kind feelings, with the gate open. Believe that the blessed life, which began in Bethlehem, more than nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of eternal love; then you can keep Christmas.

EVERSOLE.

"Few Clothes" will visit friends and relatives in Wolfe county in the near future.

died last week. They have our deepest sympathy.

here last week to attend a medical college at Louisville.

Ad. Baker, son of "Red" Bob Baker, was shot and killed Xmas day by his brother, William.

Misses Rosa Cawood and Mattie Reynolds, and Ray Davidson will attend the Berea school this winter.

Old Aunt Polly Gabbard, of Athol, died at her home last Wednesday and was buried Saturday.

Miss Bertha Couch, the little daughter of William Couch, attended the dance at Randall Amburgy's last Friday.

Miss Lou E. Rose was quietly married at the home of her brother, J. C. Rose, Sunday before

Christmas, to Haden Reynolds, of Cow Creek.

Your correspondent closed his school last Friday. Mrs. Randall Amburgy gave him and his school a dinner, and a good one too; also a dance at night.

During the course of a Christmas dinner at the home of Matt Barrett, on Lynem's Creek, near Beattyville, a fight took place which resulted in the death of James Roberts, the son-in-law of Barrett, and the probable fatal wounding of Barrett himself. Barrett had invited a number of relatives to his home on Christmas day, and it is reported that a heated conversation arose at the table when Roberts accused Barrett of bad treatment while he was visiting Barrett's daughter prior to their marriage. The conversation reached a bitter stage when, it is said, Roberts arose from the table, drew a knife and stabbed Barrett three times. Jesse Barrett, a son of the wounded man came into the room after the altercation, and it is reported he secured a shotgun, which others present sought to prevent him from using. In the scuffle that ensued the gun was discharged, but no one was hurt. Jesse Barrett then secured another gun and while he held the others at bay shot and instantly killed Roberts.

COPE BRANCH.

The infant child of George Spencer, of Oakdale, died Christmas day.

Mrs. Pop Gabbard died at her home near Mill Branch on last Thursday, aged 70 years.

Miss May Day was the guest of Misses Emma and Maggie Crawford at Jackson Xmas.

R. S. Bryant and Robert Am-burgy, of near Oakdale, were visiting the fair sex at Middle-Creek Sunday.

LOST CREEK.

Born, to Zephie Landrum and wife, on December 28th, a boy.

Rev. R. B. Landrum and wife spent Xmas with their daughter at Jackson.

Mrs. W. C. Strong and Mrs. G.
W. Smith enjoyed a sumptuous dinner given by Rev. G. E. Dru-shal and wife at their home on New Year's day.

H. S. Chapman and wife, of Quicksand, visited relatives here Sunday and attended Sunday school and church. We have a large attendance of children each Sunday and would be glad for more old people to come and study the word.

There was a Xmas entertainment at the Lost Creek school house, and the Sunday school here and at Big Branch were pleasantly surprised by a treat from the superintendent. There were a large number of children present at both schools and all went away with lots of candy and a light heart.

STACY.

Miss Serilda Hollday's school closed Friday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Roberts has been very sick for the past few days.

Miss Laura Roberts and Mrs.
Lizzie Francis were visitors at D.
L. Roberts' last Saturday.

Miss Cora Moore had a Christmas tree at her school house at the mouth of Buckhorn and Santa brought many good things to the little ones.

Deputy U. S. Marshal William Mays was here last week. He recently arrested Van Lee Wilson for the illegal sale of liquor in Perry county, and James Strickland, of Lee City, for defrauding the U. S. pension laws. The latter was taken to Covington for trial.

The U. S. Geological Survey will make a complete survey of the coal fields of Breathitt and adjoining counties early in the spring.
This will mean the initial step in the development this section.

Our combination offers are for the benefit of our old as well as new subscribers.

Wm. Risner, commonly known as "Stinger," died at his home near Hendricks, Magoffin county, last week. He was 94 years of age and probably the oldest man in the county. When 25 years old he broke the record as being the swiftest barefoot runner of his day by catching a red fox on a run.

Campton was visited by a fire early last Saturday morning. The building recently erected by the Masonic lodge and the office of the Campton Courier was destroyed, as were several other business and dwelling houses. The fire was caused by the explosion of natural gas. Loss, $25,000.

Mrs. Henry Watson, wife of Henry Watson, manager of the Jackson telephone exchange, declined to dance with John Flaherty at a Catholic dance at Mt.
Sterling, whereupon Flaherty drew a revolver and fired, the bullet passing through her lungs.
Flaherty was hurried to the jail at Lexington to prevent a mob from lynching him.

Bob Taylor's Magazine opens the new year in the same bright, happy vein which characterizes all the work of its genial Editor-in-Chief. Although engaged in a stirring campaign for the United States Senate, Gov. Taylor finds time amid his multitudinous duties to contribute each month his quota of "Sunshine and Moonshine."
"The Fiddle and Bow," probably the most popular of the Governor's lectures is being reprinted in monthly installments.

ONLY A COWBOY

Nina Leighton had gone to teach school in the west. Ward Cameron, Harvard graduate, had seen her and had formed the crazy idea of passing himself off as an uncouth cowboy and going to school to her.

He assumed the role with great success, and, though he seemed the greatest possible idiot in matters of book learning, yet in the months that followed Nina found that her heart was no longer her own. Here is a letter which Cameron wrote to his old chum, Ross Raymond:

"I have just passed through an experience that I would not have repeated for the half of my fortune, an experience which nearly cost my darling Nina—don't laugh, old fellow, for it came to that long ago—her life. Early this morning I mounted Victor and started for a hunt, intending to be out all day. Soon after noon I became aware that a storm was brewing and immediately turned my steed's head homeward.

"I had proceeded only a short distance when I was compelled to seek shelter beneath the thick foliage of a gigantic oak. There I sat for three long hours, watching with interest the pounding rain. At last the clouds broke away, and I found as I rode along through the forest, directing my course toward the high road, that the freshest had forced the creek, which in dry weather is a mere rivulet, far beyond its banks.

"Suddenly there came, louder than the torrent's roar, the sound of crashing timbers, mingled with a cry of distress. Urging Victor on, I soon witnessed a scene that seemed to freeze the very blood in my veins.

"The rushing waters had forced the bridge that spanned the creek from its hold and borne it away upon the rapid current, and, Ross, imagine, if you can, my feelings—but, no, that would be impossible—when I saw Nina Leighton standing upon it!

"Fortunately my weekly explorations of that locality in search of game had acquainted me with my surroundings, which, together with the discovery that the railing on one side of the bridge had been broken off, leaving a single post standing, enabled me to quickly determine upon a course of action.

"As the bridge passed me I shouted:
"Courage, Nina! Cling to the railing that remains, and I will save you at the bond."

"Then began the race for life. With the speed of a deer my noble Victor bounded along the bank, leaping over fallen trees and ditches. With joy I found upon nearing the bend that my side of the creek was almost clear of trees, also that the current's strength was spent against the opposite bank.

"Victor had won the race. Soon, however, the bridge, with the slender form of poor Nina standing like a statue upon it, her face the hue of death, her eyes riveted upon me, swept by.

"I will catch the post with my lasso and gallop along with you to the bend and be ready to draw the bridge ashore. Brace yourself firmly," I called.

"With a whizzing sound my lariat cut the air and settled around the post. As we approached the bend I spurred Victor forward, then, wheeling him suddenly to the right of a large tree, brought him back on his haunches. The noble fellow grudgingly sustained the trial of his strength as stronger and stronger came the strain on the lariat until the headlong course of the frail raft was entirely checked. After grounding it and securing the lasso I soon had the unconscious form of Nina Leighton safe in my arms."

"The rays of the setting sun fell upon Nina seated near the parlor window.
And who was the elegant and well dressed stranger she saw coming up the path? There was something strangely familiar to her in his appearance, yet—it could not be! Ah, but it was! For in a moment her hands were clasped in those of the visitor, and she was gazing into the rugged face of Ward Cameron.

"And how is my little teacher after her unpleasant adventure?" he mischievously asked, smiling down upon her.

Unable to bear the quizzical expression of those dark eyes and the rush of memories Ward's questions brought her, she covered her face with her hands as she faltered:

"Then you are not an ignorant cowboy, after all."

"Well, no, not exactly, since I am a graduate of old Harvard," replied Ward coolly. "Miss Leighton—Nina," he earnestly continued as he knelt at her side and drew the hands from her blushing face, "I plead your pardon for my wicked deception. Hearing much praise of the little teacher from my Aunt Helen, I masqueraded as I did through pure love of fun."

"For shame, sir!" pouted Nina, with burning cheeks. "Think of my patient endeavors to educate a Harvard graduate!"

"Sweetheart, I have learned a lesson so dangerously fascinating that I cannot unlearn it. And now," dropping the imprisoned hands and drawing the girlish form toward him, "since you have taught the ignorant cowboy to love you will you not be his wife?"

"You saved my life today, Ward. It is yours," she whispered as she tremulously turned to meet her lover's kiss.—

Frank Avowal.

Old Uncle Steve, a typical antebellum dandy, loved to sit around the stores and do light errands.

A merchant said to him one day, "Uncle Steve, of all the things you ever did what would rather do?"

Uncle Steve deliberated a moment and said, "Well, Mr. John, I'd love of all the things I ever done or ever speed to do I ruther rest."—Lippincott's Mag-

FRIDAY, JAN. 5.

The News greets its readers today for the first time in the year 1906, and wishes them all a happy new year.

The first day of the new year was like spring in the winter. If it hadn't been, you'd have felt like springing anyhow—two miles from the Christmas bill collectors.

The Supreme Court of the United States Wednesday affirmed the decision of the Court of Appeals in the case of James B.
Howard vs. the State of Kentucky.
Howard was tried three times in the circuit court of Franklin county, Ky., on the charge of murdering William Goebel, on January 30, 1900, and convicted each time. He is now under life imprisonment.

Judge Thomas H. Paynter was nominated for United States Senator by the joint legislative caucus last Tuesday night on the first ballot. Senator J. C. S. Blackburn and W. B. Haldemen were his opponents. The vote was as follows: Paynter, 59; Blackburn, 31; Haldemen, 10; Smith, 2.
Necessary to a choice, 53. This is equivalent to an election, and Judge Paynter will be elected Senator next Tuesday.

The day long looked for by the people of Breathitt county came last Monday. The day was ushered in by the ringing of all the church bells in town, which continued to give forth their joyful peals till after 1:00 a. m. It was the day on which the county government was to be handed back to the people to whom it belonged.
The sun rose in all its splendor in a clear sky and the day was a perfect one; symbolizing what the present administration is to be.

Crowds from all parts of the county began to arrive early to see the men they had recently elected inducted into office and to rejoice with each other over the fact that Breathitt county had been redeemed. It was a great day for Breathitt county. We hope all the good people will join in and help their officers give the county the best administration it ever had and that the fondest hopes of the most sanguine may be fully realized.

Eversole, formerly of this place, but now of Tyrone, has accepted

Wolfe county, passed through here Tuesday, the former going to Danville to resume his studies in the law department at Central University and the latter to Louisville to enter his junior year in the Hospital College of Medicine.

John Smith and John Abner, who stand indicted for complicity in the murder of James Cockrill, came in and surrendered themselves to the jailer. They were taken before Breck Combs, as Justice of the Peace, on a writ of habeas corpus and allowed bond in the sum of $5,000 each, which they gave.

At a school exhibition at the mouth of Wheel-rim on the Johnson fork of Licking, in Magoffin county, Columbus Purcell, who was intoxicated, shot off his pistol back of the house several times.
John L. Purcell and a brother, cousins to Columbus, met him and after a few remarks opened fire upon him. One of the brothers used a shotgun and the other a 45-calibre pistol, and a load from each was lodged in his abdomen.

At Helechawa, Wolfe county, on December 23, Shofield Montgomery was killed by Zach Napier.
Montgomery was in Napier's residence drunk and scuffling with another. Napier asked him to be quiet. Montgomery refused and threw a lump of coal, striking Napier's wife, then Napier shot him five times. After the shooting Napier escaped to Breathitt county. He was arrested at the home of Kelly Little, on the Tag fork of Frozen and placed in jail Campton.

The closing exercises of Miss Cora Moore's school, at Noble were attended by a large crowd, who seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The children acquitted themselves admirably, and the people were surprised at the progress that had been made by the pupils.
The children's time for a surprise came next, and a very agreeable one it was, as Old Santa came and distributed many beautiful presents to all. The exercises closed and every one seemed well pleased and spoke in the highest terms of the teacher's work.

Seven prisoners, convicted at the recent term of the Perry county circuit court at Hazard, in charge of Sheriff S. B. Holliday and a number of deputies, passed through Jackson since our last issue enroute to the Frankfort penitentiary, viz:

Joe Minnard, murder, 5 years.
Jake Sloan and John Singleton, destroying telephone lines, 2 years each.

John Holly, forgery, 2 years.
Stewart Hammond, forgery, 2 years.

Granville Combs, seduction, 1 year.

Archibald Kates (col.), grand larceny, 1 year.
Prof. J. L. Moore's school gave an entertainment and Christmas tree Dec. 22nd, and everybody were well pleased, especially the young folks, who went away laden with toys and Christmas goods.
Even the professor was not forgotten, but was remembered with many presents. He remarked that he was sixty years old and that that was the happiest day of his life. The exercises were excellent and there was a great deal of mirth, as the pieces were mostly humorous. Loud peals of hickory were heard as the students recited their humorous dialogues and recitations. There was no complaining, except the old ladies, who complained that the buttons were all bursted off their husbands' vests, and they would be required to sew them on again. In fact, it was a day long to be remembered by the students. The people of the Cane Creek neighborhood were all well pleased in the way Professor conducted the school and are speaking in high terms of him and the children will long remember the grand old man.

Green the pastor, extends a hearty welcome to every one to attend these meetings. Come and you will enjoy the meetings.

Noble Brothers Surrender.

Jacob, Jere and Green Noble, who were charged with the murder of Grant Holliday, came in early Monday morning and surrendered to the jailer. They were brought before Judge Taulbee Monday evening and their trial set for Wednesday. They were again brought out for trial but their cases were continued by the Commonwealth till Friday morning on account of the absence of some important witnesses. The new Sheriffs had executed the subpoenas on every witness who lived in the county. The trial was begun Friday morning but will not be concluded before tomorrow as there are many witnesses and both sides are trying to bring out all the evidence relative to the case.

Contest Cases Withdrawn.

The contest of James Hargis against S. S. Taulbee, for county Judge; of Matt Spencer against Breck Crawford, for Sheriff, and of Hiram Centers against James Little, for Jailor, were withdrawn last Monday. Three weeks of the time for the taking of the depositions by the plaintiffs had passed and very little damaging testimony was brought out. While there is no question of a doubt about the ultimate decision in these cases, everybody is glad that the trouble is over. The officers can now devote their whole time to the execution of their various offices. Let every one put their shoulder to the wheel and help the newly elected county officers give the county the best administration it ever had.

Beautiful Double Wedding.

A beautiful double wedding ceremony was performed by Prof. W. H. Cord Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at his residence, when he united in the holy bonds of matrimony W. E. Back and Miss Emma Pearl Day and Charles T. Byrd and Miss Eddie L. Daniel. Immediately after the ceremony and to their great surprise, Mrs. Cord invited them to a luncheon, after which they left to spend the honeymoon in Lexington as guests of the Reed Hotel. The quartette will then return to Cannel City and go to housekeeping in dwellings side by side and furnished very much alike, which, by the way, reminds us that their wedding outfits were duplicates.

The brides elect were among our most elegant and charming young ladies, popular, accomplished and former students of the academy.—Hazel Green Herald.

Mr. Back is a son of Miles Back, of this county. He is passenger conductor on the O. & K. Railway. His many friends and relatives in this county extend congratulations.

Americana Singers Abroad.

A few years ago a great question was raised in a daily paper. What shall we do with our girls? The Americans tried them all to Paris to become prima donnas. They came over in shoals, and perhaps one in a million succeeded in becoming a superior chorus girl. I sometimes wonder how many I have met in drawing rooms and theaters and how many of them have succeeded in doing anything whatever. Probably the bulk of them drift back to those well known small cities, New York, Chicago and Boston, but to my knowledge there are dozens of them hanging on in a lonely way in the various opera houses of Europe. They live a miserable life, they dwell in wretched hotels or pensions, their voices being hopelessly broken they sing three or four times a week, and in the end they marry or disappear no man knows where.—London Saturday Review.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Jackson Drug Co.

Automatic Aid.

Dr. Laborde of the French Academy of Medicine has invented what he terms an automatic tongue tractor for use in cases of drowning. A padded forceps grasps the tongue and pulls it out at regular intervals through the operation of a small motor worked by a battery. It has been in use on some of the French bathing beaches the last season and has been reported a great success.

It is explained that life savers working over a patient tire of the work before hope should be abandoned, but that they are perfectly willing to watch the machine perform the work until restoration is restored.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken, dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

Treatment For Sprains.

If the ankle is sprained, rest is all important. Bandage the part and keep this bandage soaked with water as hot as the patient can bear. For a sprained wrist, bathe with very hot water, then apply a padded splint and put the arm in a sling.

Cheese Straws.

Take a piece of puff paste, roll it very thin, dredge all over with grated cheese and a very little cayenne pepper. Fold the paste up, roll it thin and cut into little straws with a wheel cutter. Bake it at once.

One Minute Cough Cure.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug and it has been curing coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

Furniture Polish.

For general use the following polish has proved very satisfactory. It is easy to make and is very inexpensive: Four ounces of white beeswax dissolved in one pint of clear spirits of turpentine. Heating the turpentine and shaving the wax will greatly hasten the process of dissolution. This polish is applied with a soft cloth with a swift circular movement and will give a nice polish. It is not very durable, but can readily be renewed.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Jackson Drug Co.

To Clean Broadcloth.

To remove stains from broadcloth take one ounce of finely ground pipe clay and mix it with twelve drops of alcohol and the same quantity of spirits of turpentine. Moisten a little of this mixture with alcohol and rub it on the spots. Let it remain till dry, then rub off with a wooden cloth, and the spots will have disappeared. In very obstinate spots repeat the process.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever used," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Pottsville, Mich. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get the money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Salt For Hens.

One ounce of salt for 100 fowls is sufficient for each day. They will not be poisoned if salted regularly. An overdose, of course, is fatal.

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Stops the cough and heals the lungs

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Black Lace.
To revive black lace make some black tea about the strength usual for drinking and strain it off the leaves. Pour enough tea in a basin to cover the quantity of lace, let it stand ten or twelve hours, then squeeze it several times, but do not rub it. Dip it frequently into the tea, which at length will assume a dirty appearance. Have ready some weak gum water and press the lace gently through it. Then clap it to a towel in any shape which you wish it to take. When nearly dry cover it with another towel and iron it with a cool iron. The lace, if previously sound and discolored only, will after this process look as good as new.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Pottsville, Cal. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Removing Stains.

Unless attended to at once both tea and coffee stains are very difficult to remove. When fairly fresh they may be soaked in buttermilk and then left to dry in the open air, repeating the process if necessary, after which wash in cold water. Another recipe is to spread the stain over a basin, rub it well with powdered borax and then pour absolutely boiling water through it. A solution of sanitas is also said to be excellent for removing these stains, but if once sent to the laundry and boiled they become almost ineradicable.

Chronic Constipation Cured.

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Jackson Drug Co.

Potato Thump.

The potatoes are boiled until they are tender and then are drained and thoroughly dried. They are then mashed and beaten with a fork over the fire, so that they never, for a second, get cool. When they are as light as they can be made, butter is beaten in with them and a little hot cream with which one or two very finely minced onions have been mixed. They are served hot. If the potatoes are allowed to cool they, in combination with the onions, get like rubber in texture and taste.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicines containing injurious substances is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Cinder in the Eye.

Do not allow the patient to rub the eye nor use a soiled handkerchief. Get a bit of surgical gauze or absorbent cotton or a clean camel's hair brush, evert the eyelid with the left forefinger and remove the cinder with gauze in the right. If the eye becomes greatly inflamed, reduce the fever by applying clean compresses dipped in ice water and bathe the eye at intervals of an hour or two with a very weak solution of boracic acid.

Indigestion is easily overcome by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, because this remedy digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest—allows it to recuperate and grow strong again. Kodol relieves indigestion, belching of gas, sour stomach, heart-burn, etc., and enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into the kind of rich red blood that makes health and strength. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

A Kitchen Convenience.

A very handy flour chest may be made out of one inch boards. First there is the lid and bread board, which is supported by braces and fastened to it by wires. This keeps the braces folded up when the lid is shut. The drawers are for salt, soda, baking powder, sugar, etc. The chest may be divided by a partition for flour and meal.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

CHOICE MISCELLANY

The Barking Cat.
"Physicians," said one of them, "are not mercenary. They could make oceans of money if they cared to stoop a little. But they remain upright. Look at the case of the barking cat."

"The barking cat?"

"Yes, Delarmel, the French laryngologist? No?"

"Well, Delarmel, to prove a certain allegation of his, operated on a cat's vocal cords and larynx in such a way as to cause the animal to bark like a dog. The singular freak attracted no great attention among scientists, but when Delarmel, impudently him to make barking cats for them."

"A cat furiously and hoarsely barking would be a strange, attractive sight and one that would prove a splendid drawing card for showmen. These men accordingly offered Delarmel sums from $100 up to $1,000 for barking cats. He could have sold undoubtedly 1,000 of them at $200 apiece. For the rest of his life he could have kept profitably employed at this work, buying ordinary cats for a dime or so and turning them out barkers as valuable as horses."

"Delarmel, though, would not stoop. He only made one barking cat, and that has been dead now for two years."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator, of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Jackson Drug Co.

Gave Cows Consumption.

To show the necessity of enforcing antislavery laws Dr. Thomas Darlington, commissioner of health, started the following fact at a recent meeting of New York medical men: "Consumptives residing in an institution near New York were allowed to play quills in a certain pasture where cows grazed. Contrary to the rules, the patients expectorated upon the grass instead of using the spitting cups provided for them. The cows were killed, and it was found that nine out of ten of the animals had general tuberculosis."

An Equine Epitaph.

On opening a barrel of beef the other day the cook of an up river lumber camp found a shingle on which was inscribed:

Although I'm dead and salted here, I was a terrible horse all last year.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Penn. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Liked the Kind.

She was a very pretty southern girl who was put on the train at Richmond to come to New York alone. A cold and reserved northerner of the name of Kennedy heard the girl's uncle give her careful directions about not speaking to strangers nor to get into a strange cab if her cousin didn't meet her, and in about two minutes the northerner knew all the details of the journey. The train was not more than an hour out of Richmond before the northerner was devoting himself to the pretty southerner, who seemed to be quite willing, and the journey was enjoyed by them both. The man was paying her his fifth extravagant compliment the girl gazed at him trustfully.

"Are all northern gentlemen as complimentary as you are, sir?"

"Oh, yes," said the northerner complacently, "and you'll find that the farther north you go the more devoted they are."

"Really?" she drawled. "Then I reckon on the next time Henry starts for the pole I'll try to go too."

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Gold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in croup, cough, colds, etc. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

To Sterilize Milk.

To sterilize milk place it in a bottle and close the neck with a plug of cotton wool. Put the bottle in a large saucepan, fill the latter with cold water and bring it to a boiling point. Set aside to cool slowly.

Speed Cranberries.

Five pounds of cranberries, three and one-half pounds of brown sugar, scant pint of vinegar, two tablespoonsful of cinnamon and allspice and one of cloves. Cook slowly two hours.

FOUND.

John W. Dean had a pain in his back for about five years and it finally became so great that he could not work and, in fact, could not walk at times. Several physicians failed to cure him, but he found a remedy. It was Smith's Kidney and Nerve Tonic. For sale by H. Stidham & Son, Jackson, Ky.
